Media Arts

CREATING
Anchor Standard 1: Generate and conceptualize artistic ideas and work. Enduring Understanding: Media arts ideas, works, and processes are shaped by the imagination, creative processes, and by experiences, both within and outside of the arts. Essential Questions: (a) How do media artists generate ideas? (b) How can ideas for media arts productions be formed and developed to be effective and original?

	a. Share ideas for media artworks through guided exploration of tools, methods, and imagining.	a. Discover and share ideas for media artworks through brainstorming, creative play, and experimentation.	a. Express and share ideas for media artworks through brainstorming, sketching, and modeling.	a. Discover multiple ideas for media artworks through brainstorming and improvising.	a. Conceive of original artistic goals for media artworks using a variety of creative methods (for example, brainstorming and modeling).	a. Develop multiple ideas for media artworks using a variety of tools, methods, and/or materials.	a. Envision original ideas and innovations for media artworks using personal experiences and/or the work of others.	a. Formulate variations of goals and solutions for media artworks by practicing chosen creative generative methods (for example, sketching, improvising, brainstorming).	a. Generate ideas, goals, and solutions for original media artworks through application of focused creative processes and generative methods (for example, divergent thinking, experimenting).	a. Produce a variety of ideas and solutions for media artworks through application of chosen inventive generative methods (for example, concept modeling, prototyping).	a. Use identified generative methods to formulate multiple ideas, develop artistic goals, and problem solve in media arts creation processes.	a. Strategically utilize generative methods to formulate multiple ideas, refine artistic goals, and increase the originality of approaches in media arts creation processes.	a. Integrate aesthetic principles with a variety of generative methods to fluently form original ideas, solutions, and innovations in media arts creation processes.
Anchor Standard 2: Organize and develop artistic ideas and work. Enduring Understanding: Media artists plan, organize, and develop creative ideas, plans, and models into process structures that can effectively realize the artistic idea. Essential Questions: How do media artists organize and develop ideas and models into process structures to achieve the desired end product?

	a. Make and capture media arts content, freely and in guided practice, in media arts productions.	a. Form and capture media arts content for expression and meaning in media arts productions.	a. Create, capture, and assemble media arts content for media arts productions, identifying basic principles (for example, pattern, repetition).	a. Construct and assemble content for unified media arts productions, identifying and applying basic principles (for example, positioning, attention).	a. Construct and order various content into unified, purposeful media arts productions, describing and applying a defined set of principles (for example, movement).	a. Structure and arrange various content and components to convey purpose and meaning in different media arts productions, applying sets of associated principles (for example, balance, contrast).	a. Create content and combine components to convey expression, purpose, and meaning in a variety of media arts productions, utilizing sets of associated principles (for example, emphasis, exaggeration).	a. Experiment with multiple approaches to produce content and components for determined purpose and meaning in media arts productions, utilizing a range of associated principles (for example, point of view, perspective).	a. Coordinate production processes to integrate content and components for determined purpose and meaning in media arts productions, demonstrating understanding of associated principles (for example, narrative structures, composition).	a. Implement production processes to integrate content and stylistic conventions for determined meaning in media arts productions, demonstrating understanding of associated principles (for example, theme, unity).	a. Consolidate production processes to demonstrate deliberate choices in organizing and integrating content and stylistic conventions in media arts productions, demonstrating understanding of associated principles (for example, emphasis, tone).	a. Consolidate production processes to demonstrate deliberate choices in organizing and integrating content and stylistic conventions in media arts production, demonstrating understanding of associated principles (for example, continuity, juxtaposition).	a. Analyze, refine, and elaborate elements and components to express compelling purpose, story, emotion, or ideas in complex media arts productions, demonstrating mastery of associated principles (for example, hybridization).
	b. Attempt and share expressive effects, freely and in guided practice, in creating media artworks.	b. Make guided changes to the content, form, or presentation of media artworks and share results.	b. Make guided changes and identify the effects of making changes to the content, form, or presentation, in order to refine and finish media artworks.	b. Practice and describe expressive effects in altering, refining, and completing media artworks.	b. Practice and analyze how the emphasis of elements alters effect and purpose in refining and completing media artworks.	b. Demonstrate the intentional use of elements in a media artwork.	b. Determine how elements and components can be altered for clear communication and refine media artworks to improve clarity and purpose.	b. Explain and demonstrate how elements and components can be altered for intentional effects and different audiences.	b. Analyze, improve and refine media artworks by emphasizing particular expressive elements to reflect an understanding of purpose, audience, or place.	b. Analyze, refine, and modify media artworks, improving technical quality and accentuating selected expressive and stylistic elements, to reflect an understanding of purpose, audience, and place.	b. Analyze, refine, and modify media artworks, honing aesthetic quality and accentuating stylistic elements, to reflect an understanding of personal goals and preferences.	b. Analyze, refine, and elaborate aesthetic elements and technical components to form impactful expressions in media artworks for specific purposes, intentions, audiences, and contexts.	b. Analyze, refine, and elaborate elements and components to create media artworks that have an impact on specific purposes, audiences, and contexts.

a. Use identified skills (for example, manipulating tools, making choices, sharing) in creating and presenting media artworks.	a. Identify and demonstrate basic skills (for example, handling tools, making choices, cooperating) in creating and presenting media artworks.	a. Describe various artistic skills and roles (for example, technical steps, planning, collaborating) in media arts productions and presentations.	a. Enact roles to demonstrate basic ability in various identified artistic, design, technical, and soft skills (for example, tool use, decision making, collaboration) in media arts productions and presentations.	a. Exhibit developing ability in a variety of artistic, design, technical, and organizational roles (for example, manipulating tools, making decisions, group planning) in media arts productions and presentations.	a. Enact identified roles to practice foundational artistic, design, technical, and soft skills (for example, formal technique, equipment usage, production, collaboration) in media arts productions and presentations.	a. Enact various roles to practice fundamental ability in artistic, design, technical, and soft skills (for example, formal technique, production, collaboration) in media arts productions and presentations.	a. Develop a variety of artistic, design, technical, and soft skills through performing various assigned roles in producing and presenting media artworks (for example, invention, formal technique, production, self-initiative, problem-solving).	a. Exhibit an increasing set of artistic, design, technical, and soft skills through performing various roles in producing and presenting media artworks (for example, creative problem-solving, organizing).	a. Demonstrate a defined range of artistic, design, technical, and soft skills through performing specified roles in producing and presenting media artworks (for example, strategizing, collaborative communication).	a. Demonstrate progression in artistic, design, technical, and soft skills as a result of selecting and fulfilling specified roles in the production and presentation of a variety of media artworks.	a. Demonstrate effective command of artistic, design, technical, and soft skills in managing, producing, and presenting media artworks.	a. Employ mastered artistic, design, technical, and soft skills in managing, producing and presenting media artwork.
b. Use identified creative skills (for example, imagining freely and in guided practice) within media arts productions.	b. Identify and demonstrate creative skills (for example, performing) within media arts productions.	b. Describe and demonstrate basic creative skills within media arts productions (for example, varying techniques).	b. Demonstrate use of experimentation skills (for example, trial and error, playful practice) within and through media arts productions.	b. Exhibit basic creative skills (for example, trial and error, playful practice) to invent new content and solutions within and through media arts productions.	b. Practice foundational innovative abilities (for example, design thinking) in addressing problems within and through media arts productions.	b. Practice fundamental creative and innovative abilities (for example, expanding conventions) in addressing problems within and through media arts productions.	b. Develop a variety of creative and adaptive innovation abilities (for example, testing constraints) in developing solutions within and through media arts productions.	b. Exhibit an increasing set of creative and adaptive innovation abilities (for example, exploratory processes) in developing solutions within and through media arts productions.	b. Demonstrate a defined range of creative and adaptive innovation abilities (for example, divergent solutions, bending conventions) in developing new solutions for identified problems within and through media arts productions.	b. Develop and refine a determined range of creative and adaptive innovation abilities (for example, design thinking, risk taking) in addressing identified challenges and constraints within and through media arts productions.	b. Demonstrate effective ability in creative and adaptive innovation abilities (for example, resisting closure, responsive use of failure) to address sophisticated challenges within and through media arts productions.	b. Fluently employ mastered creative and innovative adaptability in formulating lines of inquiry and solutions to address complex challenges within and through media arts productions.
c. Use media arts creation tools freely and in guided practice.	c. Practice, discover, and share how media arts creation tools work.	c. Experiment with and share different ways to use tools and techniques to construct media artworks.	c. Demonstrate and explore identified methods to use tools to capture and form media artworks.	c. Exhibit standard use of tools and techniques while constructing media artworks.	c. Demonstrate use of tools and techniques in standard and novel ways while constructing media artworks.	c. Examine how tools and techniques could be used in standard and experimental ways in constructing media artworks	c. Demonstrate adaptability using tools and techniques in standard and experimental ways in constructing media artworks.	c. Demonstrate adaptability using tools and techniques in standard and experimental ways to achieve an assigned purpose in constructing media artworks.	c. Demonstrate adaptability using tools, techniques and content in standard and experimental ways to communicate intent in the production of media artworks.	c. Demonstrate adaptation and innovation through the combination of tools, techniques, and content, in standard and innovative ways, to communicate intent in the production of media artworks.	c. Demonstrate the skillful adaptation and combination of tools, styles, techniques, and interactivity to achieve specific expressive goals in the production of a variety of media artworks.	c. Independently utilize and adapt tools, styles, and systems in standard, innovative, and experimental ways in the production of complex media artworks.

Critically investigate and strategically interact with legal, technological, systemic, and vocational contexts of media arts.

Media Arts Glossary

Attention: Principle of directing perception through sensory and conceptual impact.

Balance: Principle of the equitable and/or dynamic distribution of items in a media arts composition or structure for aesthetic meaning, as in a visual frame, or within game architecture.

Components: The discrete portions and aspects of media artworks, including elements, principles, processes, parts, and assemblies (for example, light, sound, space, time, shot, clip, scene, sequence, movie, narrative, lighting, cinematography, interactivity).

Composition: Principle of arrangement and balancing of components of a work for meaning and message.

Constraints: Limitations on what is possible, both real and perceived.

Context: The situation surrounding the creation or experience of media artworks that influences the work, artist, or audience. This can include how, where, and when media experiences take place, as well as additional internal and external factors (for example, personal, societal, cultural, historical, physical, virtual, economic, systemic).

Continuity: The maintenance of uninterrupted flow, continuous action, or self-consistent detail across the various scenes or components of a media artwork (for example, game components, branding, movie timeline, series).

Contrast: Principle of using the difference between items, such as elements, qualities, and components, to mutually complement them.

Convention: An established, common, or predictable rule, method, or practice within media arts production, such as the notion of a “hero” in storytelling.

Copyright: The exclusive right to make copies, license, and otherwise exploit a produced work.

Design thinking: A cognitive methodology that promotes innovative problem solving through the prototyping and testing process commonly used in design.

Digital identity: How one is presented, perceived, and recorded online, including personal and collective information and sites, e-communications, and commercial tracking.

Divergent thinking: Unique, original, uncommon, idiosyncratic ideas; thinking “outside of the box.”

Emphasis: Principle of giving greater compositional strength to a particular element or component in a media artwork.

Ethics: Moral guidelines and philosophical principles for determining appropriate behavior within media arts environments.

Exaggeration: Principle of pushing a media arts element or component into an extreme for provocation, attention, or contrast, as seen in character, voice, mood, or message.

Experiential Design: Area of media arts wherein interactive, immersive spaces and activities are created for the user; associated with entertainment design.

Fairness: Complying with appropriate, ethical, and equitable rules and guidelines.

Fair use: Permits limited use of copyrighted material without acquiring permission from the rights holders, including commentary, search engines, and criticism.

Force: Principle of energy or amplitude within an element, such as the speed and impact of a character’s motion.

Generative methods: Various inventive techniques for creating new ideas and models, such as brainstorming, play, open exploration, experimentation, inverting assumptions, or rule bending.

Hybridization: Principle of combining two existing media forms to create new and original forms, such as merging theatre and multimedia.

Interactivity: A diverse range of articulating capabilities between media arts components, such as user, audience, and sensory elements, that allow for inputs and outputs of responsive connectivity using sensors, triggers, and interfaces, and may be used to obtain data, commands, or information and may relay immediate feedback, or other communications; contains unique sets of aesthetic principles.

Juxtaposition: Placing greatly contrasting items together for effect.

Legal: The legislated parameters and protocols of media arts systems, including user agreements, publicity releases, and copyright.

Manage audience experience: The act of designing and forming user sensory episodes through multisensory captivation, such as using sequences of moving image and sound to maintain and carry the viewer’s attention or constructing thematic spaces in virtual or experiential design.

Markets: The various commercial and informational channels and forums for media artworks, such as television, radio, Internet, fine arts, nonprofit, or communications.

Meaning: The formulation of significance and purposefulness in media artworks.

Media arts contexts: The diverse locations and circumstances of media arts, including its markets, networks, technologies, and vocations.

Media environments: Spaces, contexts, and situations where media artworks are produced and experienced, such as in theaters, production studios, and online.

Media literacy: A series of communication competencies, including the ability to access, analyze, evaluate, and communicate information in a variety of forms, including print and nonprint messages.

Media messages: The various artistic, emotional, expressive, prosaic, commercial, utilitarian, and informational communications of media artworks.

Modeling or concept modeling: Creating a digital or physical representation or sketch of an idea, usually for testing; prototyping.

Movement: Principle of motion of diverse items within media artworks.

Multimedia theatre: The combination of live theatre elements and digital media (for example, sound, projections, video) into a unified production for a live audience.

Multimodal perception: The coordinated and synchronized integration of multiple sensory systems (for example, vision, touch, auditory) in media artworks.

Narrative structure: The framework for a story, usually consisting of an arc of beginning, conflict, and resolution.

Personal aesthetic: An individually formed, idiosyncratic style or manner of expressing oneself; an artist’s “voice.”

Perspective: Principle pertaining to the method of three-dimensional rendering, point-of-view, and angle of composition.

Point of view: The position from which something or someone is observed; the position of the narrator in relation to the story, as indicated by the narrator’s outlook from which the events are depicted and by the attitude toward the characters.

Positioning: The principle of placement or arrangement.

Production processes: The diverse processes, procedures, or steps used to carry out the construction of a media artwork, such as prototyping, playtesting, and architecture construction in game design.

Prototyping: Creating a testable version, sketch, or model of a media artwork, such as a game, character, website, or application.

Resisting closure: Delaying completion of an idea, process, or production or persistently extending the process of refinement, toward greater creative solutions or technical perfection.

Responsive use of failure: Incorporating errors toward persistent improvement of an idea, technique, process, or product.

Rules: The laws or guidelines for appropriate behavior; protocols.

Safety: Maintaining proper behavior for the welfare of self and others in handling equipment and interacting with media arts environments and groups.

Soft skills: Diverse organizational and management skills, useful to employment, such as collaboration, planning, adaptability, and communication.

Stylistic convention: A common, familiar, or even “formulaic” presentation form, style, technique, or construct, such as the use of tension-building techniques in a suspense film.

Systemic communications: Socially or technologically organized and higher-order media arts communications such as networked multimedia, television formats and broadcasts, “viral” videos, social multimedia (e.g., “Vine” videos), remixes, and transmedia.

System(s): The complex and diverse technological structures and contexts for media arts production, funding, distribution, viewing, and archiving.

Technological: The mechanical aspects and contexts of media arts production, including hardware, software, networks, and code.

Tone: Principle of “color,” “texture,” or “feel” of a media arts element or component, such as sound, lighting, mood, or sequence.

Transdisciplinary production: Accessing multiple disciplines during the conception and production processes of media creation and using new connections or ideas that emerge to inform the work.

Transmedia production: Communicating a narrative and/or theme over multiple media platforms, while adapting the style and structure of each story component to the unique qualities of the platforms.

Virtual channels: Network-based presentation platforms such as YouTube, Vimeo, and Deviantart.

Virtual worlds: Online, digital, or synthetic environments (for example, Minecraft, Second Life).

Vocational: The workforce aspects and contexts of media arts.
